

Junior Exploration Geologist

Reporting to the Regional Project Geologists, the Junior Exploration Geologist will primarily be responsible for assisting the Field Geologists in sampling and data collection.

Job Details:

- Project is based out of multiple locations in the southern interior of British Columbia;
- Collection of silt, talus fines, and soil samples using a sieve and soil auger;
- Capture observational data on site location and local surficial geology;
- Daily data entry and QAQC;
- Structural data collection (training will be provided);
- Daily reporting to management with program status updates; and
- Travel to site is provided by Talisker from most major centres in British Columbia;

Job Requirements:

- Registered in or completed BSc. in Geology/Earth Sciences;
- Previous outdoor experience is considered an asset;
- Will require extensive hiking in moderate to rugged terrain;
- Strong organizational and time management skills;
- Effective at communicating information with peers and management;
- Innovative with the ability to work well within a team and demonstrates problem-solving skills;
- Experience with GIS, Excel and Word considered an asset;
- Safety conscious;
- Valid driver's license;
- Working knowledge of British Columbian and Canadian environmental regulations, guidelines, and standards is an asset; and
- Candidates must be eligible to work in Canada.

Posted on February 16, 2023

If you're interested in joining a dynamic team, please respond to careers@taliskerresources.com.